Libel for Divorce.

Martha Mathewson, Caledonia County Court vs.
Edison H. Mathewson.
December Term
A. D. 1906.

Whereas, Martha Mathewson of Lyndon, in the County of Caledonia, has filed in the office of the clerk of Caledonia County Court her bill for divorce, setting forth in substance that she was legally married to Edison H. Mathewson on or at Waterville in the County of Middlesex and state of Massachusetts, on the 27th day of September A. D. 1880; that she thereafter cohabited with the said Edison H. Mathewson at Lyndon in the State of Vermont; that during the cohabitation she was forced to and did cease to cohabit with the said Edison H. Mathewson, the petitioner, by reason of such intolerable severity, was forced to and did cease to cohabit with the said Edison H. Mathewson; that the said Edison H. Mathewson being of sufficient pecuniary and physical ability, to provide suitable maintenance for her, has without cause, grossly, wantonly and cruelly refused and neglected so to do.

Petitioner further shows that the said Edison H. is seized and possessed of real and personal estate, situate in Lyndon, Vermont, of the value of four thousand dollars.

Wherefore petitioner prays that a bill of divorce be granted unto her and that she may be decreed a just and reasonable portion of said property or a just and reasonable sum of money, in lieu thereof, as alimony.

And an injunction order signed by Seneca Haselton, Judge of the Supreme Court, has been filed with said petitioner in the office of the Clerk of the Court, enjoining the said Edison H., his agents, servants and attorneys from selling, disposing of, or in any way interfering with any of the real estate or personal property of the said Edison H., situate at Lyndon in the County of Caledonia.

And it being made to appear that the said Edison H. Mathewson is without the State, so that a citation cannot be served upon him, Therefore, it is ordered that notice of the pendency of said libel be given him by publication of the substance thereof, together with this order, in the St. Johnsbury CALEDONIAN, a newspaper published at St. Johnsbury in the County of Caledonia, three weeks successively, the last of which publications to be at least six weeks prior to the first day of the next term of Caledonia County Court, to be held at St. Johnsbury, in the County of Caledonia, on the first Tuesday of Dec., A. D. 1906, at which time the said Edison H. Mathewson is ordered to appear, and show cause if any he have why the prayer of said petition should not be granted.

Given under my hand at St. Johnsbury, in the County of Caledonia, the 14th day of August A. D. 1906.
